

Roger is a motivational speaker who helps you create teams and companies people don't want to leave. You hire him for his expertise in emotional intelligence and appreciation. He doesn't give up on people; he believes they will find a way to move forward and improve. How does he do it? Roger's programs are high content and motivational in style and tone. He delivers stories, ideas, and keys to unlock what's already inside you.

Roger has over 20 years of expert interpersonal communication and team-building experience. Audiences rave about his two most popular keynotes, How to Thrive in Times of Uncertainty and Create Companies People Don't Want to Leave.

Roger's core messages center around trust, communication, and emotional intelligence. He helps leaders and high-performing teams communicate with clarity, conviction, and positive intent. He is an advocate of Clifton's Strength Finder, VIA Character Strengths, and everything surrounding positivity.

Roger lives in Madison, Wisconsin. He currently serves as the President of the National Speakers Association Wisconsin Chapter. He loves to travel, bike, and read science fiction. He is a big fan of baseball, pinball, and all things Tesla.
